

Friend ship

When I feel down,
They're there to help.

When I'm at the bottom of an abyss,
They're there to clear the mist.

When I'm a fright,
They're there to turn on the light.

When I give out a yelp,
They're there to help.

Friends are loyal,
Not spoiled.

Friends are kind and refined
Not blind.
